

Public Works Open House

The City of Princeton, Texas, is set to host its annual Public Works Open House on Saturday, May 17, 2025, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Public Works facility located at 255 E. Monte Carlo Boulevard. This free, family-friendly event offers residents a unique opportunity to explore the essential services that keep the city running smoothly. Attendees can get an up-close look at the city's trucks and machinery, tour the facility, and meet the dedicated Public Works employees who maintain Princeton's infrastructure. The event also features complimentary food and activities, making it an enjoyable outing for all ages. Whether you're interested in learning about city operations or simply looking for a fun community event, the Public Works Open House promises an engaging experience for everyone.

Citizens Government Academy

CITIZENS GOVERNMENT ACADEMY

The City of Princeton, Texas, is launching its Citizens Government Academy this fall, offering residents a unique opportunity to engage with their local government. This program is designed to give participants an in-depth understanding of municipal operations, services, and decision-making processes. Through interactive sessions, attendees will learn firsthand how various city departments function and how policies are developed and implemented. The academy aims to foster civic engagement, strengthen community connections, and empower residents with the knowledge to become informed advocates for their city. Whether you're interested in public safety, city planning, or community services, the Citizens Government Academy offers valuable insights into the workings of Princeton's local government.

Applications for this exciting program will open in July, allowing interested individuals to sign up and participate in this enriching experience. It's a great way to connect with the community, ask questions, and become more involved in local decision-making. Don't miss the chance to be part of this dynamic initiative!
